December 2016

Dear Awesome Members:

As our thoughts turn to spending time with family and friends, and helping those in need, we once again are reminded of the sacrifices made to ensure our freedoms and are grateful for the brave and tireless efforts of our men and women in uniform who have served and who continue to serve. On a personal note, I am thankful for each of you and all that we have accomplished this year together. You all have truly made our culture unique, and we all should be proud to be a part of the Association of Desk and Derrick. We accomplished much in 2016 and I know we will surpass these accomplishments in 2017 together. Communication is the key in keeping Desk and Derrick viable and moving forward. The ADDC website offers an important tool in communicating with members but remember, you have a say in this organization, and your voice will be heard. Communicating means answering emails, keeping on task, and meeting deadlines. Our network of members is the best way to keep communication flowing freely. So please let your voice be heard because you ALL have a voice.

From the time I joined Desk and Derrick I aspired to one day lead this great organization but honestly never thought I would make it and yet here I am ending my year as your President. I would not have gotten to this honor without all of you behind me supporting me and I truly feel blessed to have been given this opportunity to serve you.

What a strong and amazing group of people we have in our Association and I just want to say a big "THANK YOU" to Sheryl Minear, Maggi Franks and all the 2016 Board of Directors. You made me look good and made my year better by just being there for support and advice. I also want to say a huge thank you to Lurl Andrus, Nell Lindenmeyer, Linda Rogers, Marilyn Carter and Lori Landry for all your help and support and faith in me. I relied on your wisdom and leaned on you many times. When I was a Region Director I had the privilege of serving with 6 other fantastic ladies and we became known as the 7/11's as there were 7 of us in the year 2011. You ladies pushed me further than I ever imagined I could to "step up" and I did and am so grateful that I was given this honor.

And last but certainly not least I want to say a big THANK YOU to my San Antonio Club members, your support was incredible and much appreciated. Wayne, Andre and Mark have been invaluable to me this past year and I could not have done it without you all. Thank you.

Frances Hidell started me on this journey and I certainly hope I did her proud. She was always there in my heart and I want you all to know that all of you will forever live in my heart.

As always, we thank God for watching over us. I wish each of you the very best for a safe, joyful Holiday, as we reflect on our many blessings.

There is one more thought I would like to leave you with....

YOU HAVEN'T SEEN THE LAST OF ME YET!

DESK AND DERRICK
CLUBS

Dear Region III Members:

MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

This year has certainly flown – it seems like only a few days ago -- I was trying to determine what to include in my first RD letter to Region III members. Now, I'm writing the final one!!

Well, not a lot of news to impart. However, I am making a plea to each Region III member to volunteer in 2017. The ADDC Officers, our RD and our clubs NEED YOUR PARTICIPATION! We all seem to be working more and more; and, also have more responsibilities at home. I understand – we are all busy. I also know that we enjoy our Desk and Derrick membership and we want our club, our region and our association to continue to exist. 'We can't do so without YOUR COMMITMENT AND HELP!

I thank Connie Harrison for her dedication to Desk and Derrick and her outstanding leadership of the ADDC Board during 2016. I truly enjoyed working with the entire board and their guidance throughout the year.

CONGRATULATIONS to the 2017 ADDC Board, led by Maggi Franks as President; and 2017 Regional Director, Claudia Prather. I congratulate Region III Club Presidents and club board members. I wish everyone a successful year as they preside over ADDC, our region and clubs.

The ADDC B&P Meeting is usually held in January. Claudia will send a notice regarding the 2017 B&P Meeting to all clubs. As an advanced reminder, please let Claudia know of any business or issue you wish her to discuss at this meeting.

Thank you for your encouragement during 2016! It has been an honor and pleasure to serve as 2016 Region III Director. I truly enjoyed the experience once more. Your assistance, thoughtfulness and support has made this a memorable year for me!

May you all have a blessed and wonderful NEW YEAR!!

God Bless,
Theresa

Merry Christmas everyone! The year has flown by so quickly. Thank you everyone for giving me the opportunity to lead this year. I would like to thank all of my Board Members and the Committee Chairmen for the hard dedicated work they have done this year and to all the others that have taken such an active roll.

Our activities this year include the Digital Scrapbooking Seminar in February, Personal Development Seminar in March. March was also our D and D month with TV spot light, 008 magazine article, proclamation from Parish President Joel Robideaux. April was the Region III meeting in Morgan City. May gave us the Special Fund Raising Committee with the Love the Oilfield Decals and Bunco events in July and October. June was the St. Landry Landfill fieldtrip, September was the seminar by Randy Smith on the changes in safety training through the years and the ADDC Convention in Denver. We've also have so many wonderful guest speakers throughout this year. If you missed out on any of these activities and meetings you missed a lot of opportunities to learn about our industry.

Our continuing goal is the Online Lafayette Oil Directory. As we approach our first year of completion of being online we need to continue to support and invite the industry to get online, review, update information and advertise. This year was a little slower than expected with the down turn in the industry and all of the cutbacks financially and with personnel. Please continue to support the online directory, as hopefully the industry turns around in 2017.

Everyone needs to start marking their calendars for the coming year. Region III meeting will be in El Dorado, AR on April 27 – April 30. ADDC Convention will be in San Antonio, TX on September 19 – September 24.

Want to remind everyone that our December Christmas General Meeting will be December 14th, this is one week earlier. The large dining room has been arranged for us. We will be having a gift card exchange this year. If you would like to participant bring a $10 gift card from anywhere. We also will be having a few door prize drawings. We will be handing over the gantlet to our 2017 President Sarah Hulin and the newly elected Board Members at this meeting too!

We will be collecting items for Faith House at this meeting also. Please remember those who are not as fortunate as we are and are going through troubled times. There is a listing at the end of each Desrick that notes items that are needed and feel free to donate things these ladies and their children might like for the holidays.

Membership renewal forms will be forward to each club shortly. Please take a moment and quickly submit your membership renewal paperwork with your dues for 2017. Renewals are due by January 17th.

As always, remember to contact the house committee, Karen Thomasee and Vickie Chauvin, if you are bring a guest or can't make it. Please note if you fail to cancel your standing reservation you will be charged.

I want to wish everyone a very merry and safe Christmas and New Year's holiday. Looking forward to 2017 and the wonderful educational opportunities Desk and Derrick will provide us all.

Susie M. Ellender

Will Trump Help Independent Operators In The Gulf Of Mexico?

The Louisiana economy needs a kick start, not a kick in the teeth. Unfortunately, the outgoing Obama Administration is making a last gasp effort to hit us where it hurts most—our energy sector.

It's no secret – lower commodity prices, out-of-control regulations, and other factors have challenged the oil and gas industry in recent years. Well over 10,000 of our high-paying energy jobs have been lost. We are all concerned, our state coffers are depleted, and we need solutions from Washington on a modern, pro-growth energy policy.

This is no time for bureaucratic rules that actually deter oil and gas companies from sparking growth and creating jobs. But the federal Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM), under the direction of the Obama Administration, seems unfazed by these realities and has announced devastating new guidelines on financial assurance for operations in the Gulf of Mexico. An arcane part of energy policy, financial assurance is required to obtain a federal lease for off-shore drilling. Energy companies must put up bonds or other collateral to ensure that sufficient funds will be available to safely decommission a well once the oil and gas has been extracted. This is intended to protect taxpayers from footing the bill should an energy company go bankrupt or walk away from a lease before plugging a well.

Existing financial assurance guidelines have worked for decades, even in the toughest times. Making them more onerous will not improve on their 100% successful track record—but it will add extensive costs. Operators will be asked to put up larger bonds or set aside more capital funds. To the extent they can do so, they will be redirecting monies that could otherwise be spent on exploration, wages and hiring, and yes, well decommissioning itself.

There are reasons to doubt that smaller, independent operators will be able to comply. Independent companies not blessed with the deep pockets of major oil and gas companies will likely be unable to provide sufficient financial assurance. Leases will be lost and bankruptcies will ensue, sending the industry into a tailspin.

According to an independent study by energy experts at Opportune, LLC, the results will be dire. Over 10 years, production will fall by the equivalent of 367 million barrels of oil, and 87,000 fewer energy jobs will be available. The hit to U.S. GDP is estimated at $10 billion.

Here in Louisiana, our state budget situation will only worsen. The oil and gas industry paid nearly $1.5 billion in state taxes in fiscal year 2013—over 14% of the total taxes and fees collected. Another $1.4 billion comes from taxing household earnings from Louisianans working in the industry.

Damage to the energy sector is immediately reflected in our state revenues. We're already facing a 2016 shortfall that could reach $300 million, on top of $315 million in arrears from last year. We cannot afford to lose more oil and gas contributions that help fund health care, higher education, and other essential services.

Louisianans recognized that the country was on the wrong track. The American people made it clear they want more growth, better jobs, and the security of a domestic energy strategy unconstrained by radical anti-drilling ideology. That means overturning the BOEM's unfair, job-killing financial assurance rule.

The good news is that a newly empowered Congress can right the wrong the regulators in Washington seem intent on committing. Our congressional delegation in Washington is poised to immediately craft and pass a legislative solution to modernize financial assurance guidelines without crippling America's domestic energy production. Our working families and communities are depending on it.

7 Quick Tips To Improve Your Leadership Skills

Tip #1. Show Respect: If you want to be in a leadership position, start building relationships with people by respecting what they do. Practically nothing is more important. Additionally, it is important that a great leader never misses an opportunity to learn more about the people behind them. Great leaders never skip an employee's birthday gathering or a holiday party because they are too busy-they know that work will always be there.

Tip #2. Build on Relationships: As a leader, know who people are, what is important to them, and what motivates them. This will help you understand everyone's goals and how you can support your staff. When you help people, they will care about you and your goals in return.

Tip #3. Have a Good Attitude: Positive attitudes can be infectious. As a leader, you need to find ways to stay upbeat and find the best ways to improve. Do not expect too much from your staff-no one is perfect; while you do need to address poor performance, it is extremely important to acknowledge a job well done, which will build a positive work environment where people feel appreciated.

Tip #4. Work on Your Strengths: Figure out what your strengths and weaknesses are. While it is important to address your weaknesses, you might find it better to first start by focusing on your strengths. This will allow you to rise to the expert level sooner than you would be by working on your weaknesses. Bottom line: Know what you are good at and keep at it.

Tip #5. Find People Who Complement You: Again, we all have strengths and weaknesses. Great leaders are aware of their weaknesses and find people who support their shortcomings. This is not because they are weak and need to cover themselves, but because they know the benefit of having a strong team-and when the team wins, everyone wins.

Tip #6. Develop A Mentoring Program: Mentoring someone will not only help develop that person's career, but will also help leaders refine their skills. It is a great way to help improve your staff members' skills while also improving on relationships.

Tip #7. Maintain Balance In Your Life: A big key to success is learning to balance work and family. Life is too short for you to live at your job. Great leaders set career boundaries and know when to spend more time with family and friends. Doing this will make you a stronger leader.

Executive Summary: While some people are just great leaders, others have to work a bit harder to achieve the necessary skills. Take the time to consider your strengths and weaknesses and get to know your staff; surround yourself with the best possible people to become an excellent leader.

Understanding & Coping with the Christmas Blues

The stress of the holidays triggers sadness and depression for many people. This time of year is especially difficult because there's an expectation of feeling merry and generous. People compare their emotions to what they assume others are experiencing or what they're supposed to feel. Then they think that they alone fall short. They judge themselves and feel like an outsider.

There're a host of things that add to stress and difficult emotions during the holidays.

- Finances. Not enough money or the fear of not having enough to buy gifts leads to sadness and guilt. The stress of financial hardship during this economic downturn is often compounded by shame. When you can't afford to celebrate, it can feel devastating.
- Stress. For example, there is the stress of shopping and planning family dinners when you're already overworked and tired.
- Loneliness. A whopping 43 percent of Americans are single, and 27 percent of Americans live alone. When others are with their families, it can be very painful for those who are alone. Seventeen percent of singles are over 65, when health, age, and mobility can make it more difficult to enjoy yourself.
- Grief. Missing a deceased loved one. Seniors have more reasons to grieve.
- Estrangement. When you're not speaking to a relative, family get-togethers can usher in feelings of sadness, guilt, resentment, or inner conflict about whether to communicate.
- Divorce. If you're newly divorced, the holidays may remind you of happier times and accentuate your grief. It's especially difficult for adult children of divorce who have to balance seeing two sets of parents. The stress is multiplied for married children who have three or even four sets of parents to visit.
- Pleasing. Trying to please all of your relatives – deciding what to get, whom to see, and what to do – can make you feel guilty, which leads to depression.

SAD. Many people experience the blues during gloomy weather due to decreased sunlight, called Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD).

Much of the planning, shopping, and cooking is done by women, so they carry the greater burden in preparing for family gatherings. Women are at greater risk for depression than men. They're twice as likely to experience depression. After heart disease, depression is the most debilitating illness for women, while it's tenth for men.

Some measures you can take to cope with the holiday blues include:

- Make plans in advance, so you know how and with whom your holidays will be spent. Uncertainty and putting off decision-making add enormous stress.
- Shop early and allow time to wrap and mail packages to avoid the shopping crunch.
- Ask for help from your family and children. Women tend to think they have to do everything, when a team effort can be more fun.
- Don't buy things you can't afford. Shame prevents people from being open about gift-giving when they can't afford it. Instead of struggling to buy a gift, let your loved ones know how much you care and would like to, but can't afford it. That intimate moment will relieve your stress and nourish you both.
- Don't allow perfectionism to wear you down. Remember it's being together and goodwill that matters.
- Make time to rest and rejuvenate even amidst the pressure of getting things done. This will give you more energy.
- Spend time alone to reflect and grieve, if necessary. Pushing down feelings leads to depression. Let yourself feel. Then do something nice for yourself and socialize.
- Don't isolate. Reach out to others who also may be lonely. If you don't have someone to be with, volunteer to help those in need. It can be very uplifting and gratifying.

The signs of depression are feelings of sadness, worthlessness or guilt, crying, loss of interest in usual activities, fatigue, difficulty concentrating, irritability, social withdrawal, and changes in sleep, weight, or appetite. If these symptoms are severe or continue for a few weeks, more than the holidays may be the cause. Seek professional help.

Ultimate Cranberry Pudding Cake

INGREDIENTS

- 6 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups white sugar
- 4 cups all-purpose flour
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups evaporated milk
- 1 (12 ounce) package cranberries
- 1 cup butter
- 2 cups white sugar
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1 teaspoon of vanilla extract

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F (165 degrees C). Grease and flour a 10 inch Bundt pan. Mix together the flour, baking powder and salt. Set aside.
2. In a large bowl, cream together the 6 tablespoons butter and 2 cups sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in the flour mixture alternately with the evaporated milk. Stir in the cranberries. Pour batter into prepared pan.
3. Bake in the preheated oven for 50 to 60 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted into the center of the cake comes out clean. Let cool in pan for 10 minutes, then turn out onto a wire rack and cool completely.
4. To make the Hot Butter Sauce: In a saucepan, combine 1 cup butter, 2 cups sugar, and cream. Bring to a boil over medium heat, reduce heat and let simmer for 10 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Serve slices of cake generously covered with hot butter sauce.
